

Flock Safety ALPR Camera Briefing

Prepared for:	Apex Town Commissioners
Prepared by:	IT Security Administration
Date:	February 22, 2026
Classification:	PUBLIC
Subject:	ALPR Camera Inventory and Associated Security Risks

1. Introduction

This briefing provides the Apex Town Commissioners with a comprehensive overview of the Town's engagement with Flock Safety automated license plate reader (ALPR) cameras. It includes a current inventory of deployed assets, a summary of publicly disclosed critical security vulnerabilities in Flock Safety products, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

The Apex Police Department contracted with Flock Safety on June 30, 2023. Following the resolution of a statewide licensing dispute between Flock Safety and the NC Alarm Systems Licensing Board (resolved in mid-2024 when Flock agreed to seek state licensure) [REDACTED]

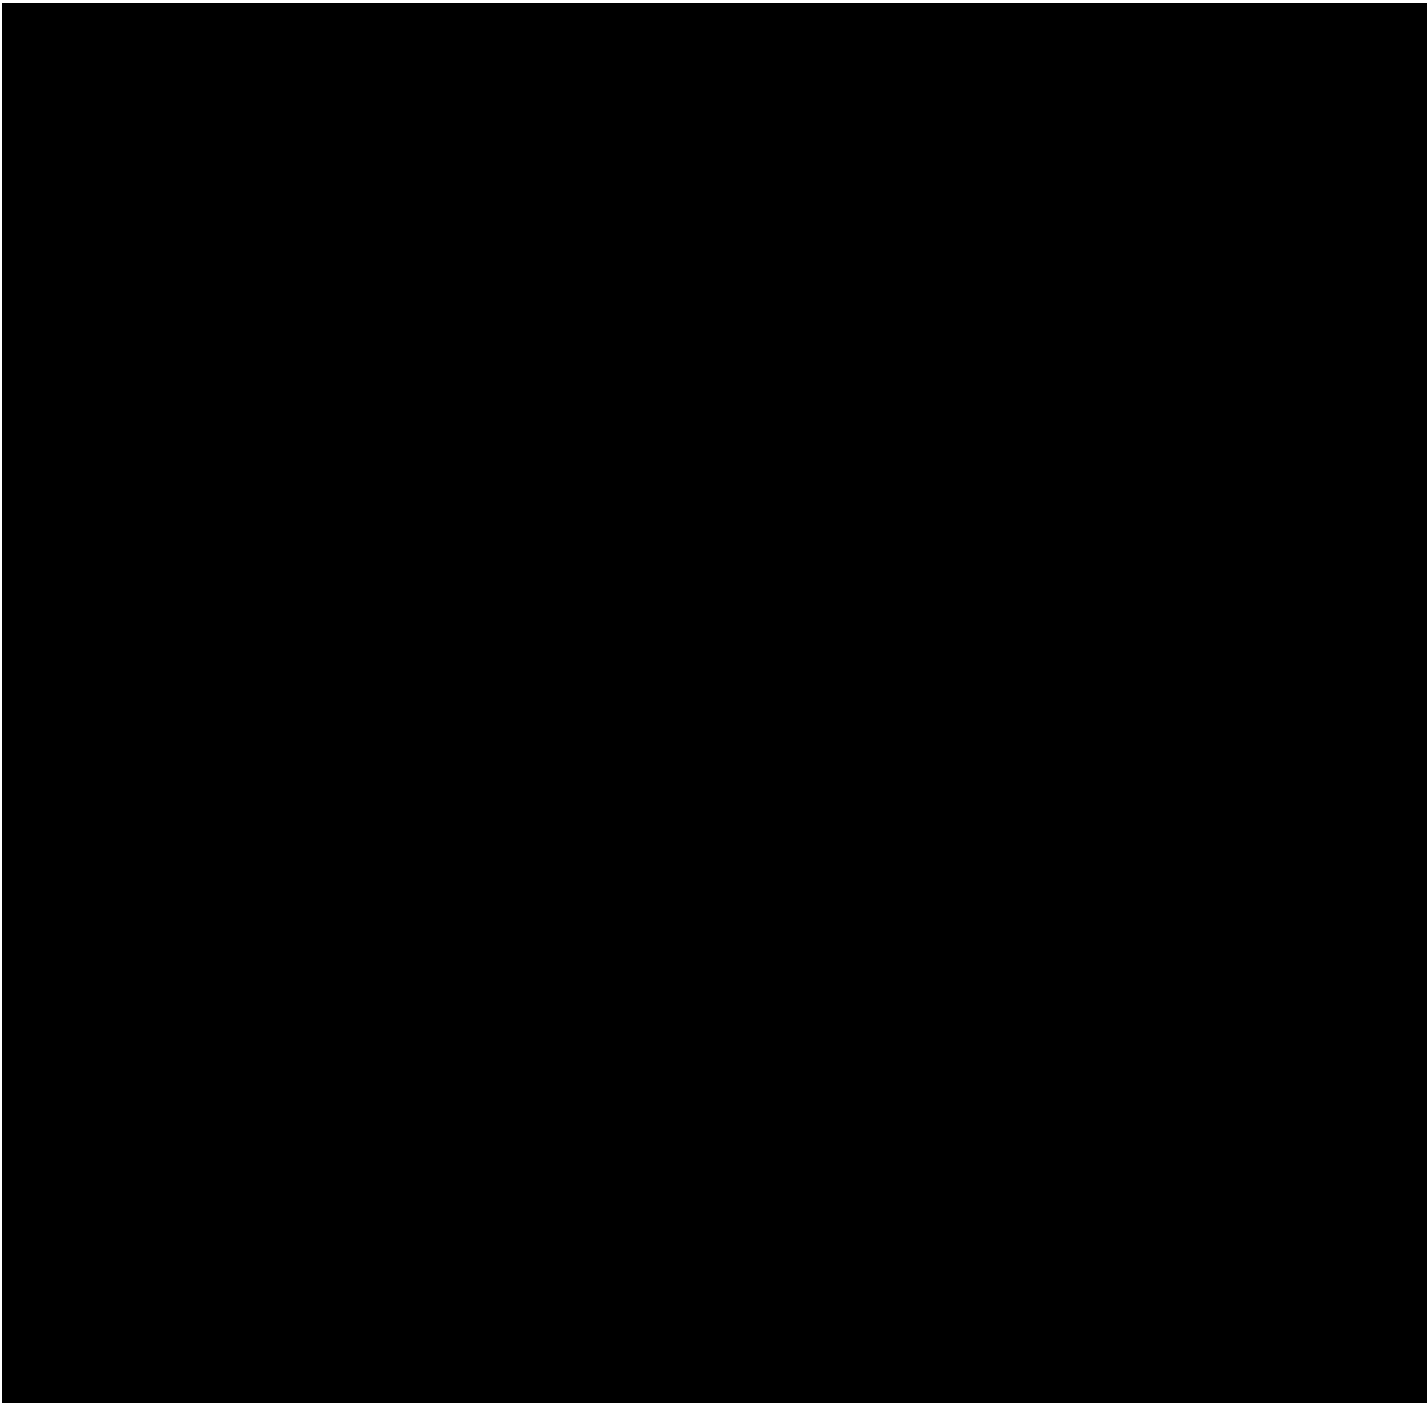

[REDACTED]

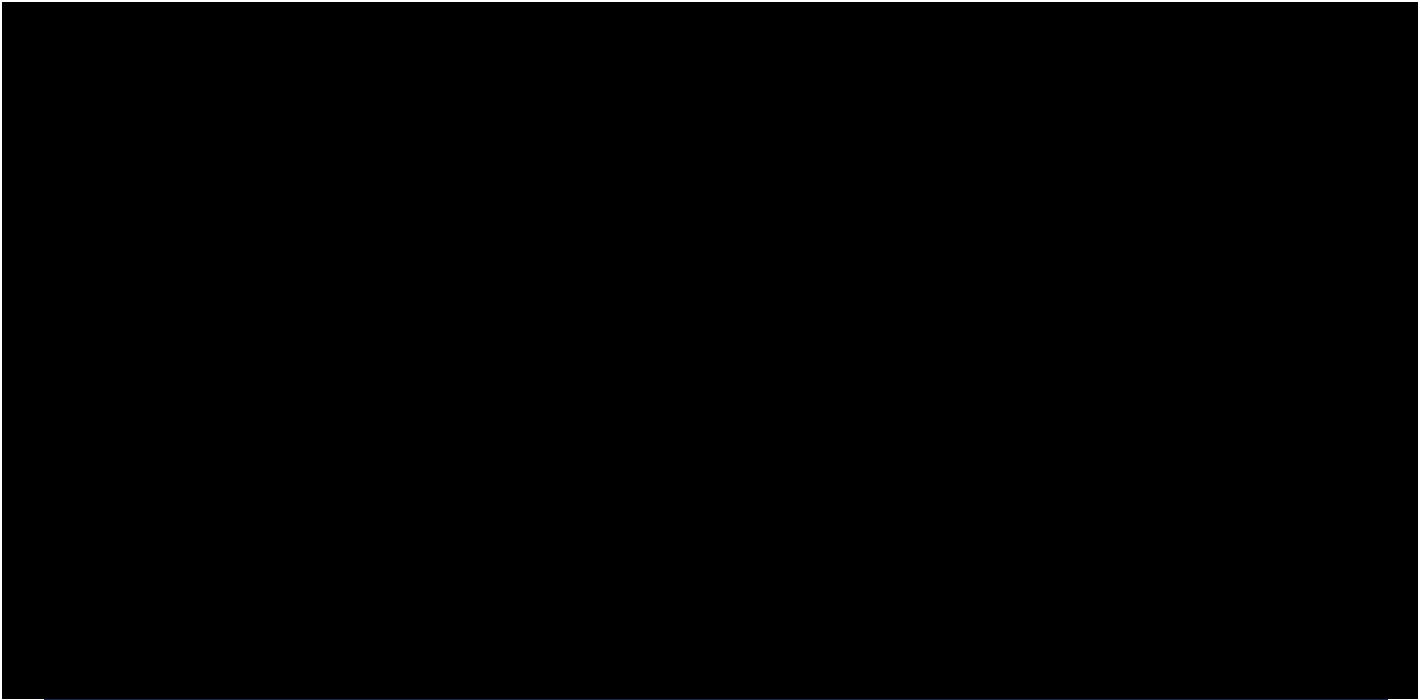

[REDACTED]

2. ALPR Camera Inventory: Town of Apex

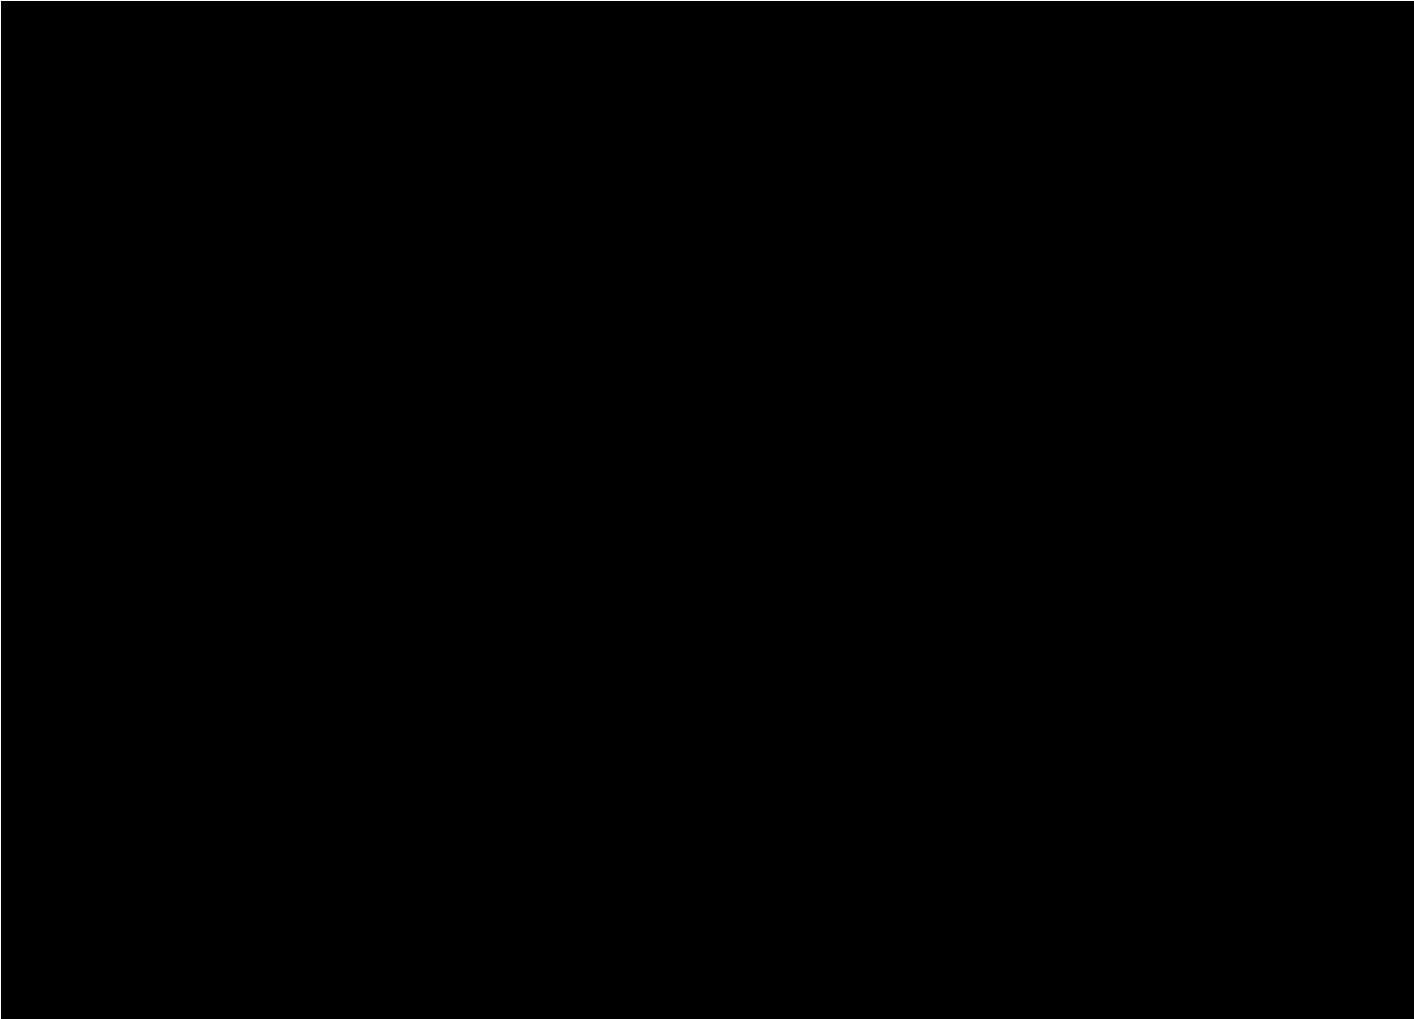

3. Security Vulnerabilities in Flock Safety Devices

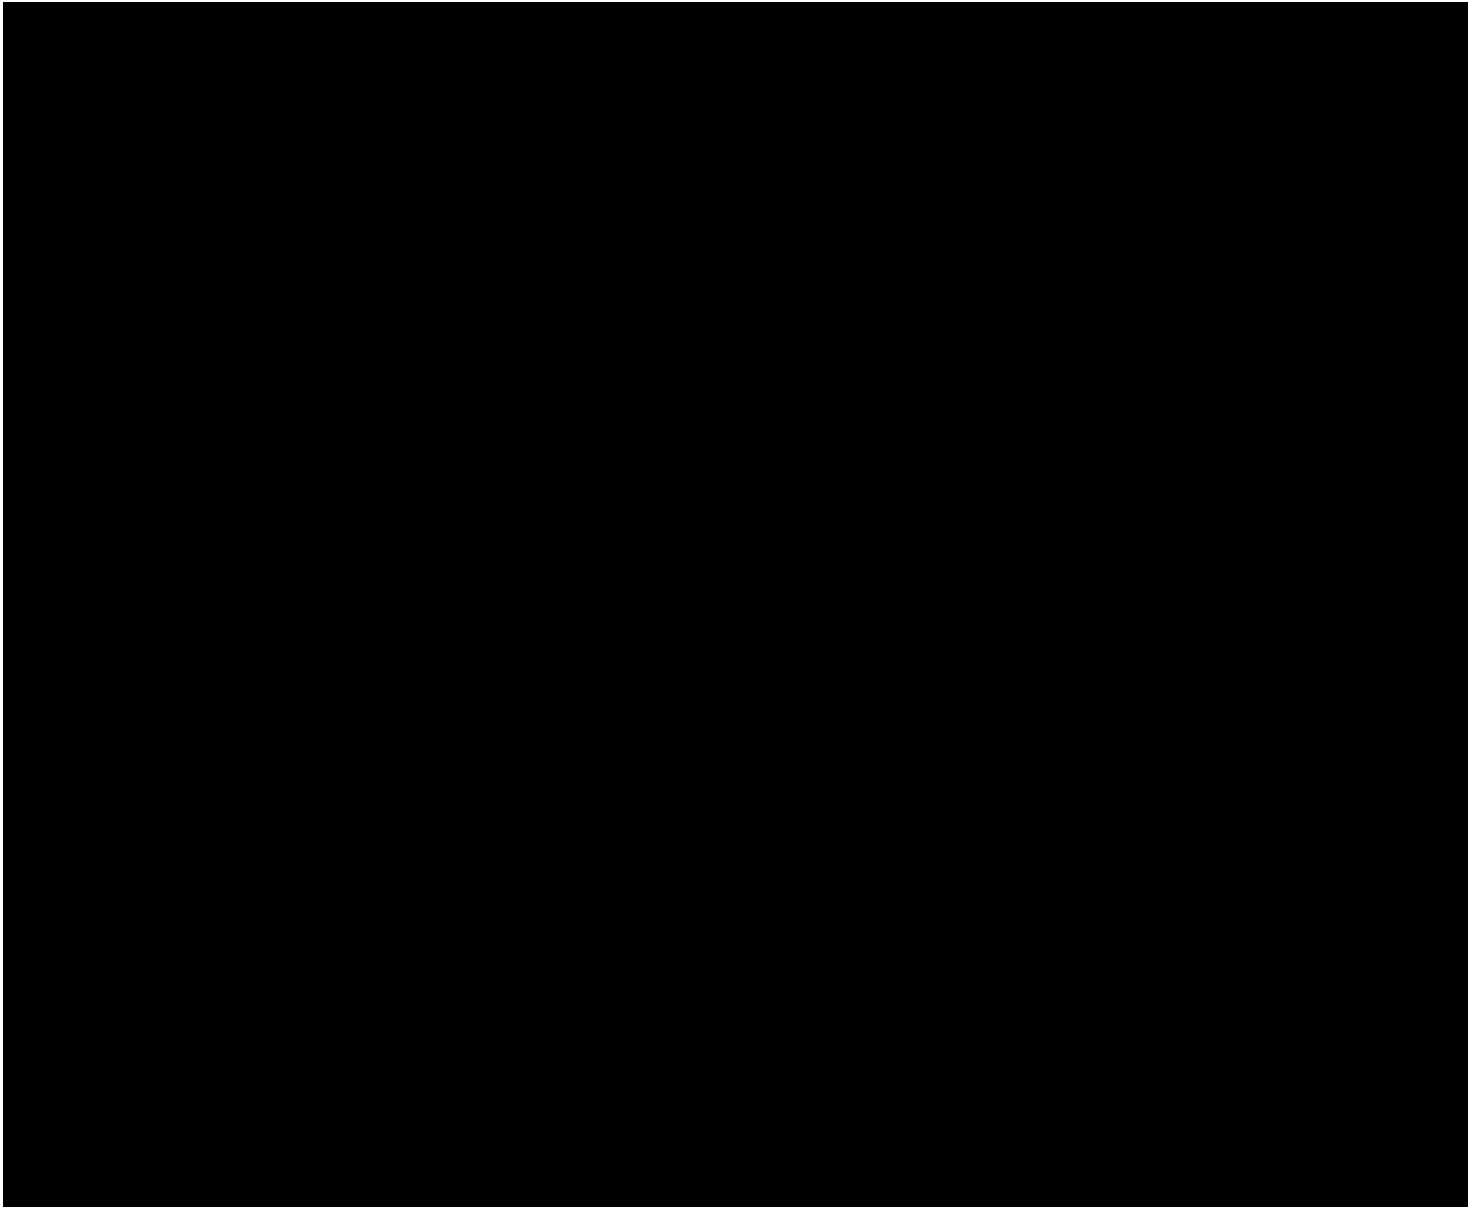

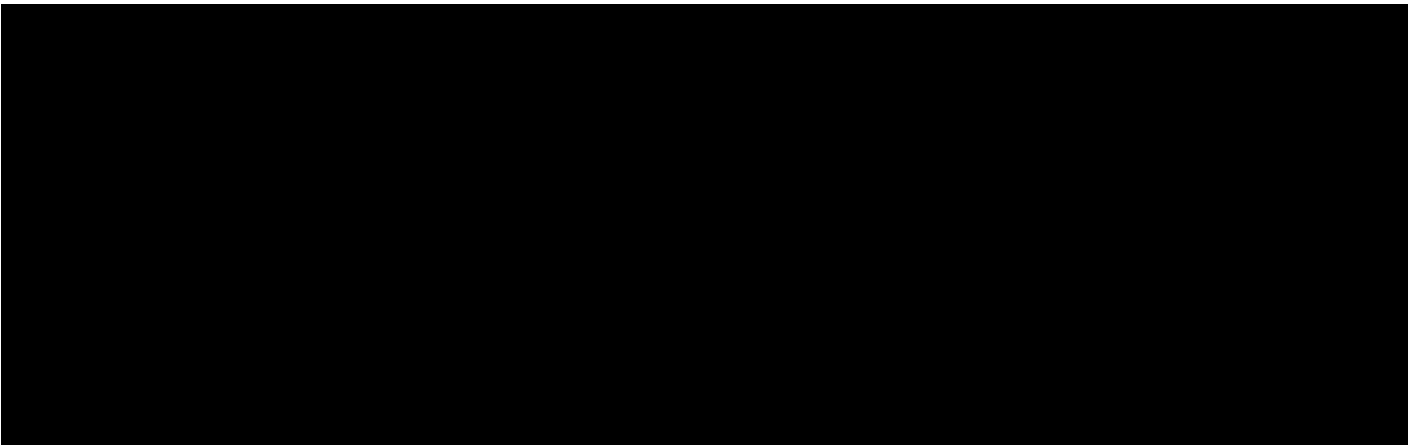

4. What These Vulnerabilities Mean in Practice

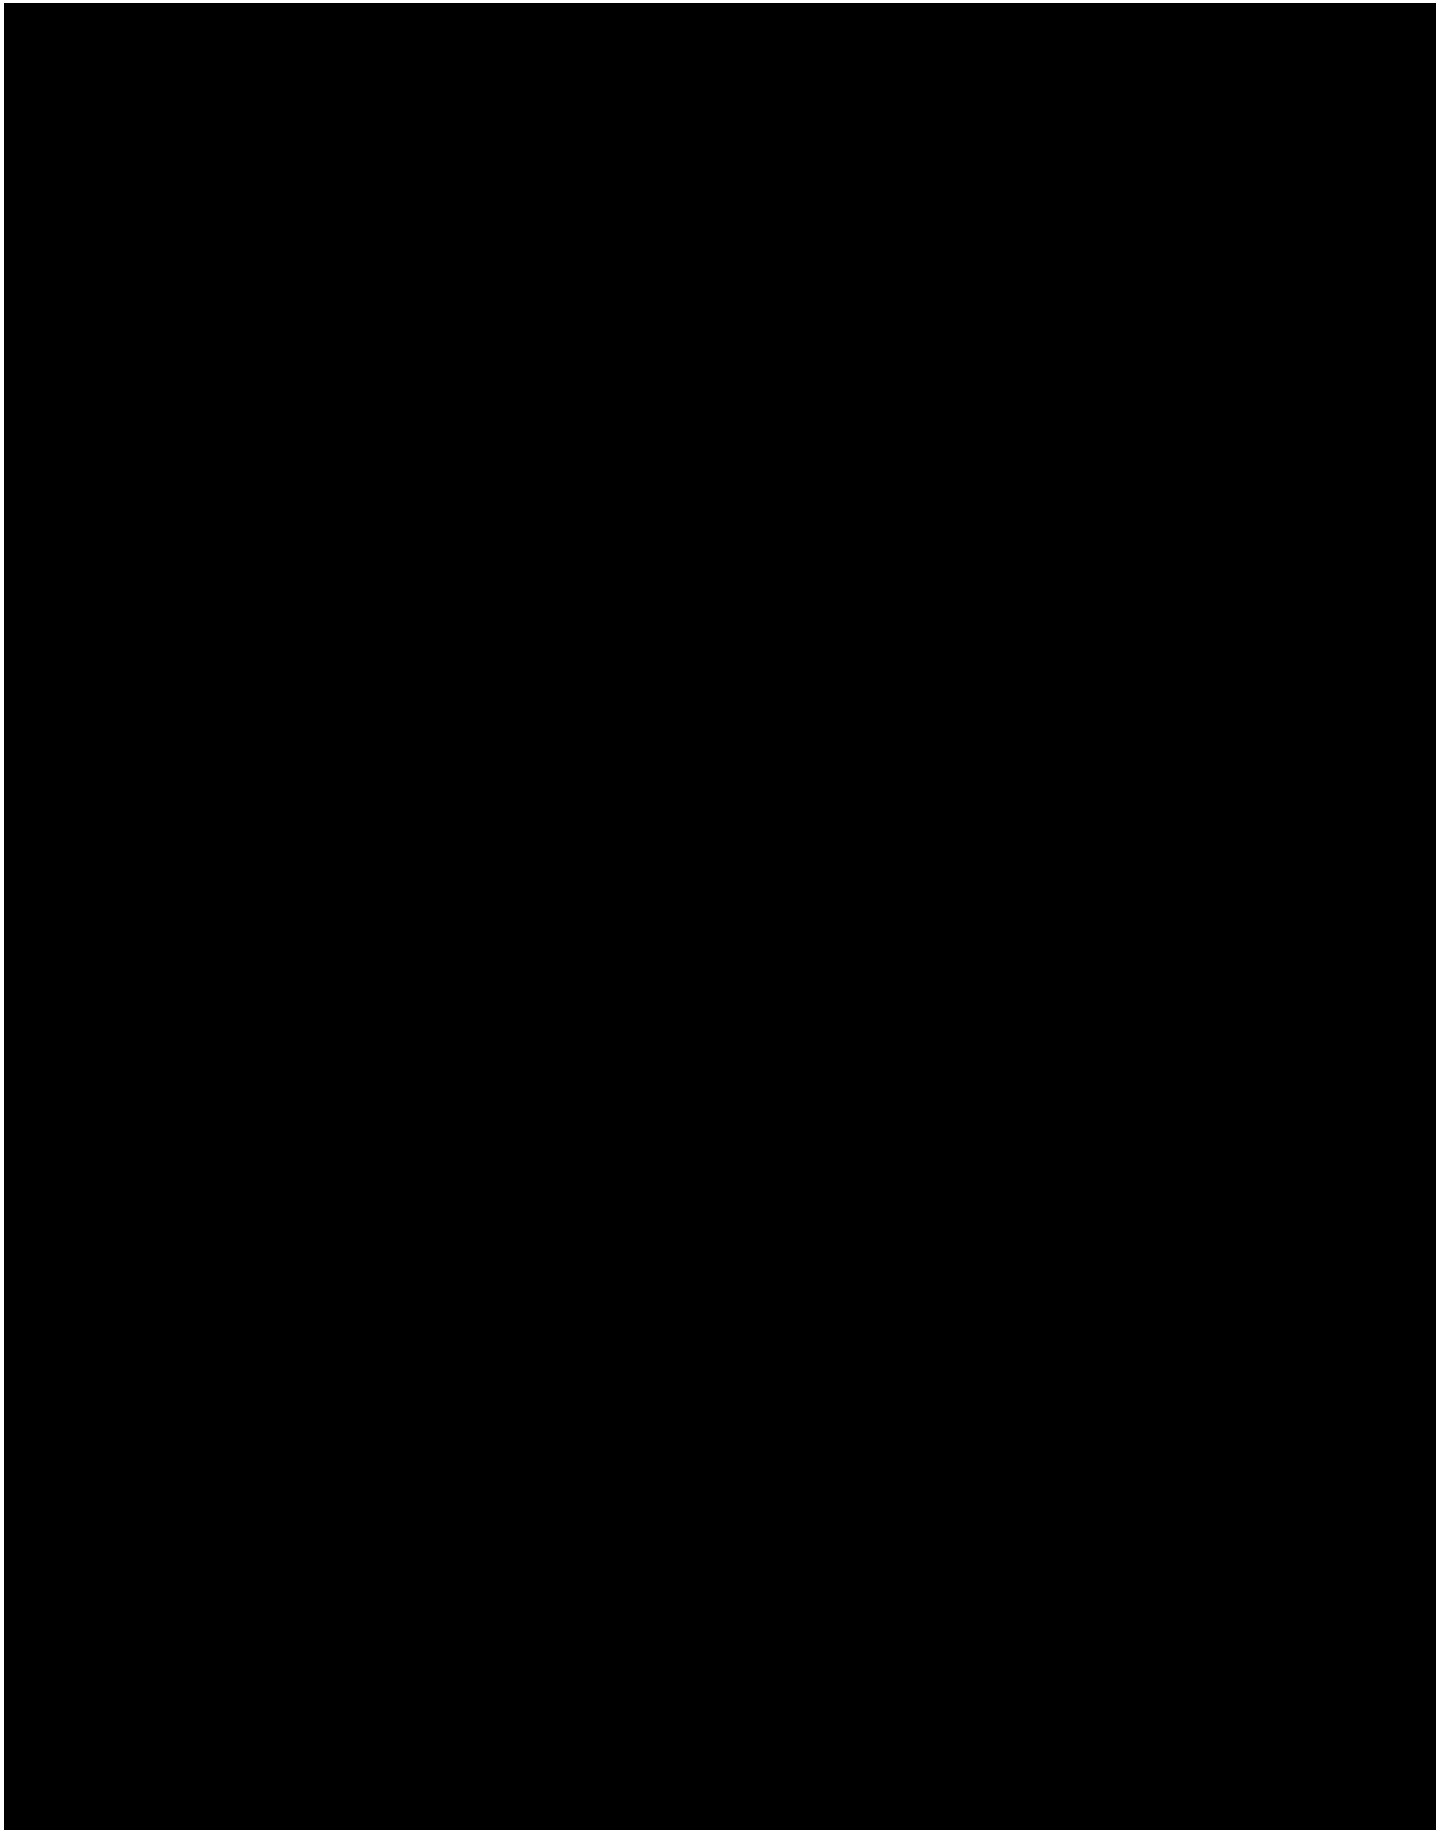

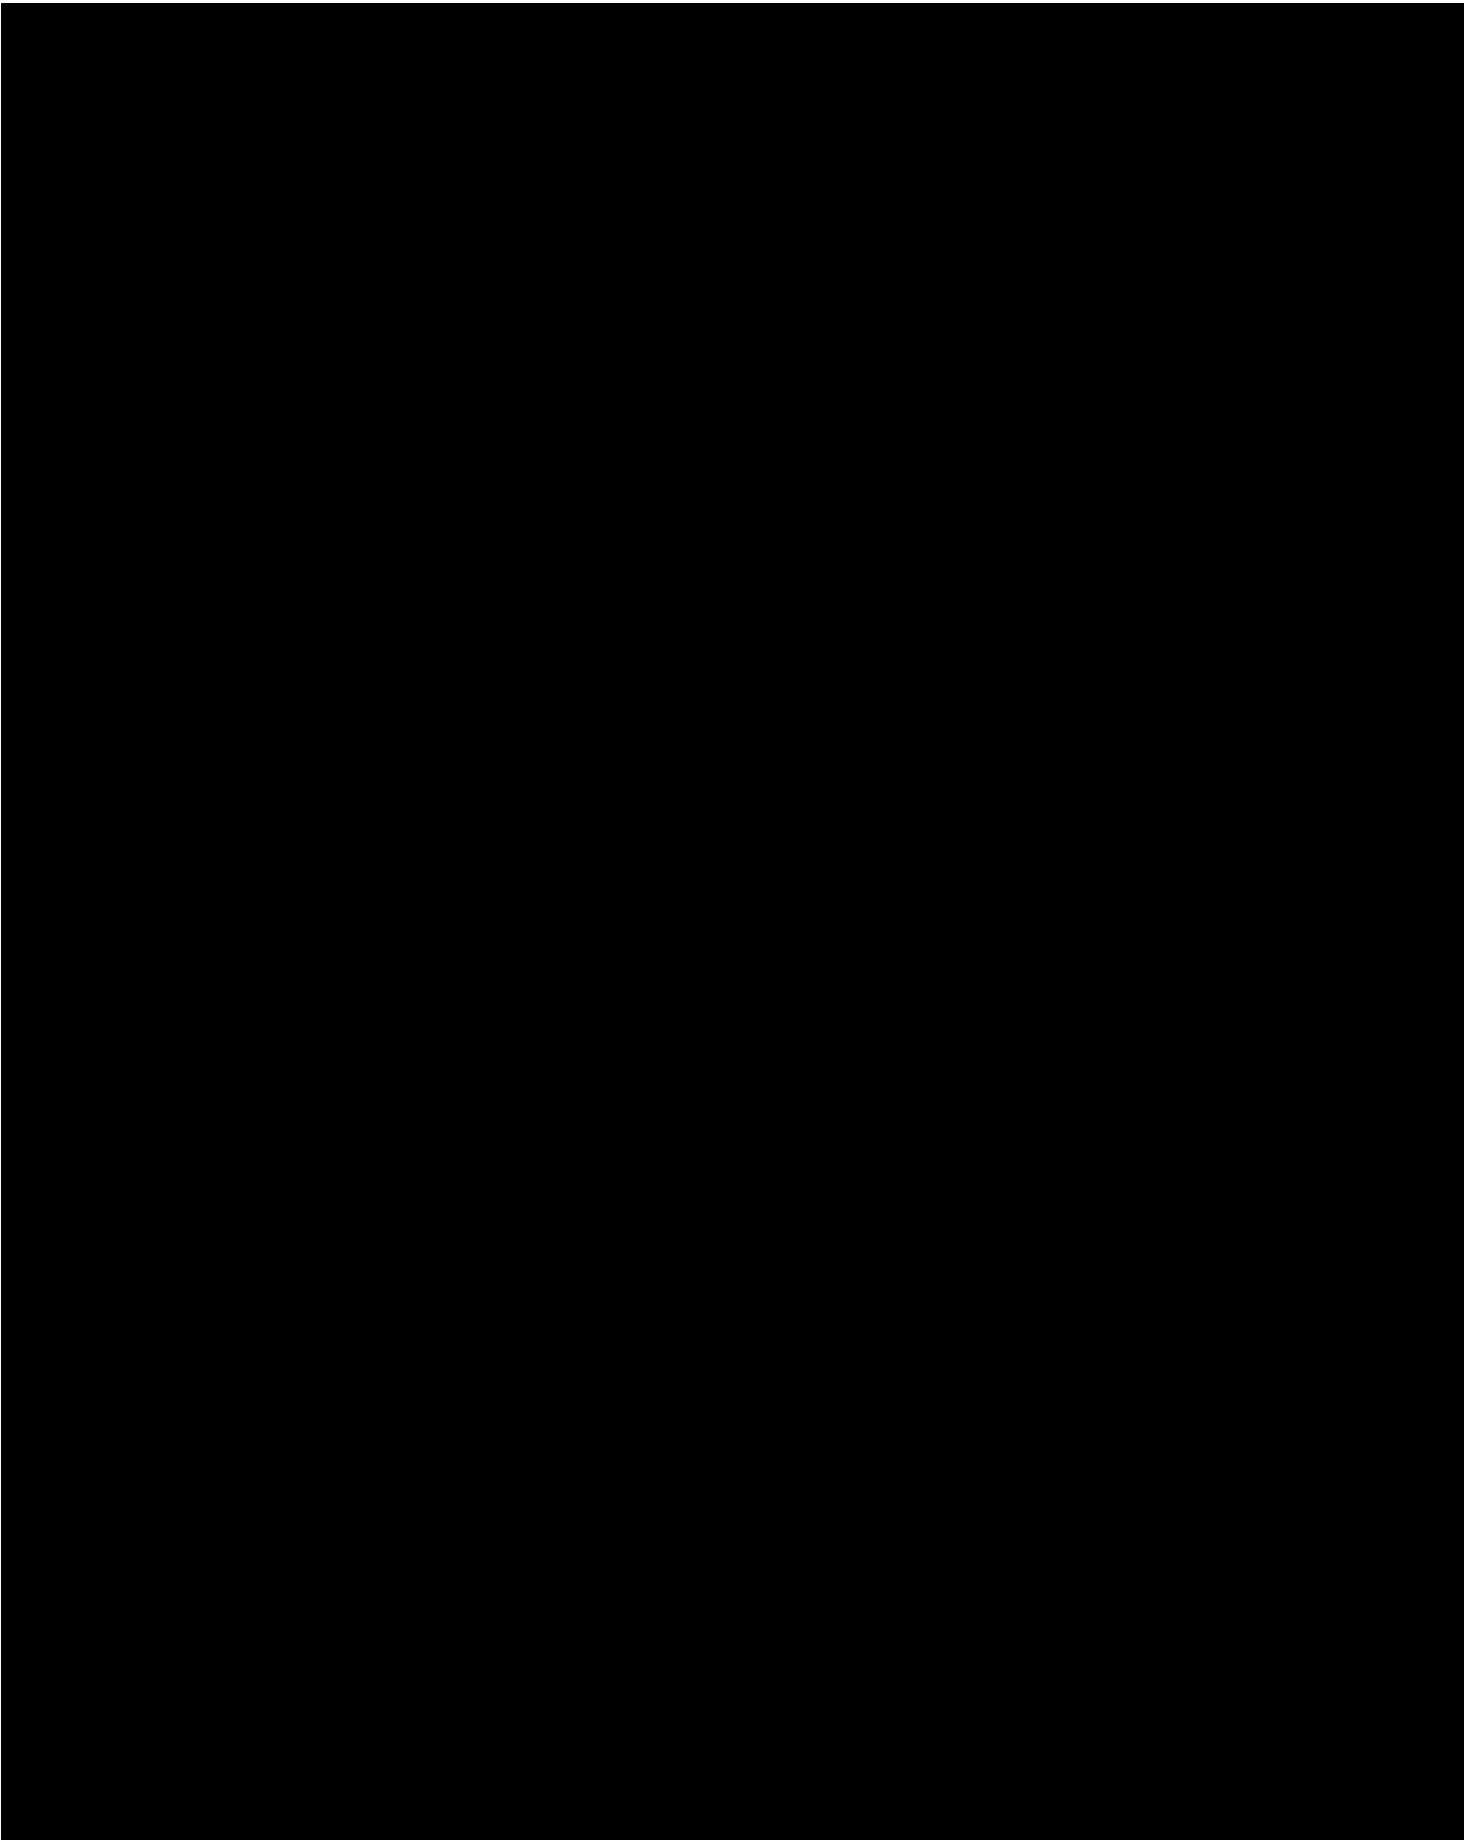

5. Compliance and Legal Concerns

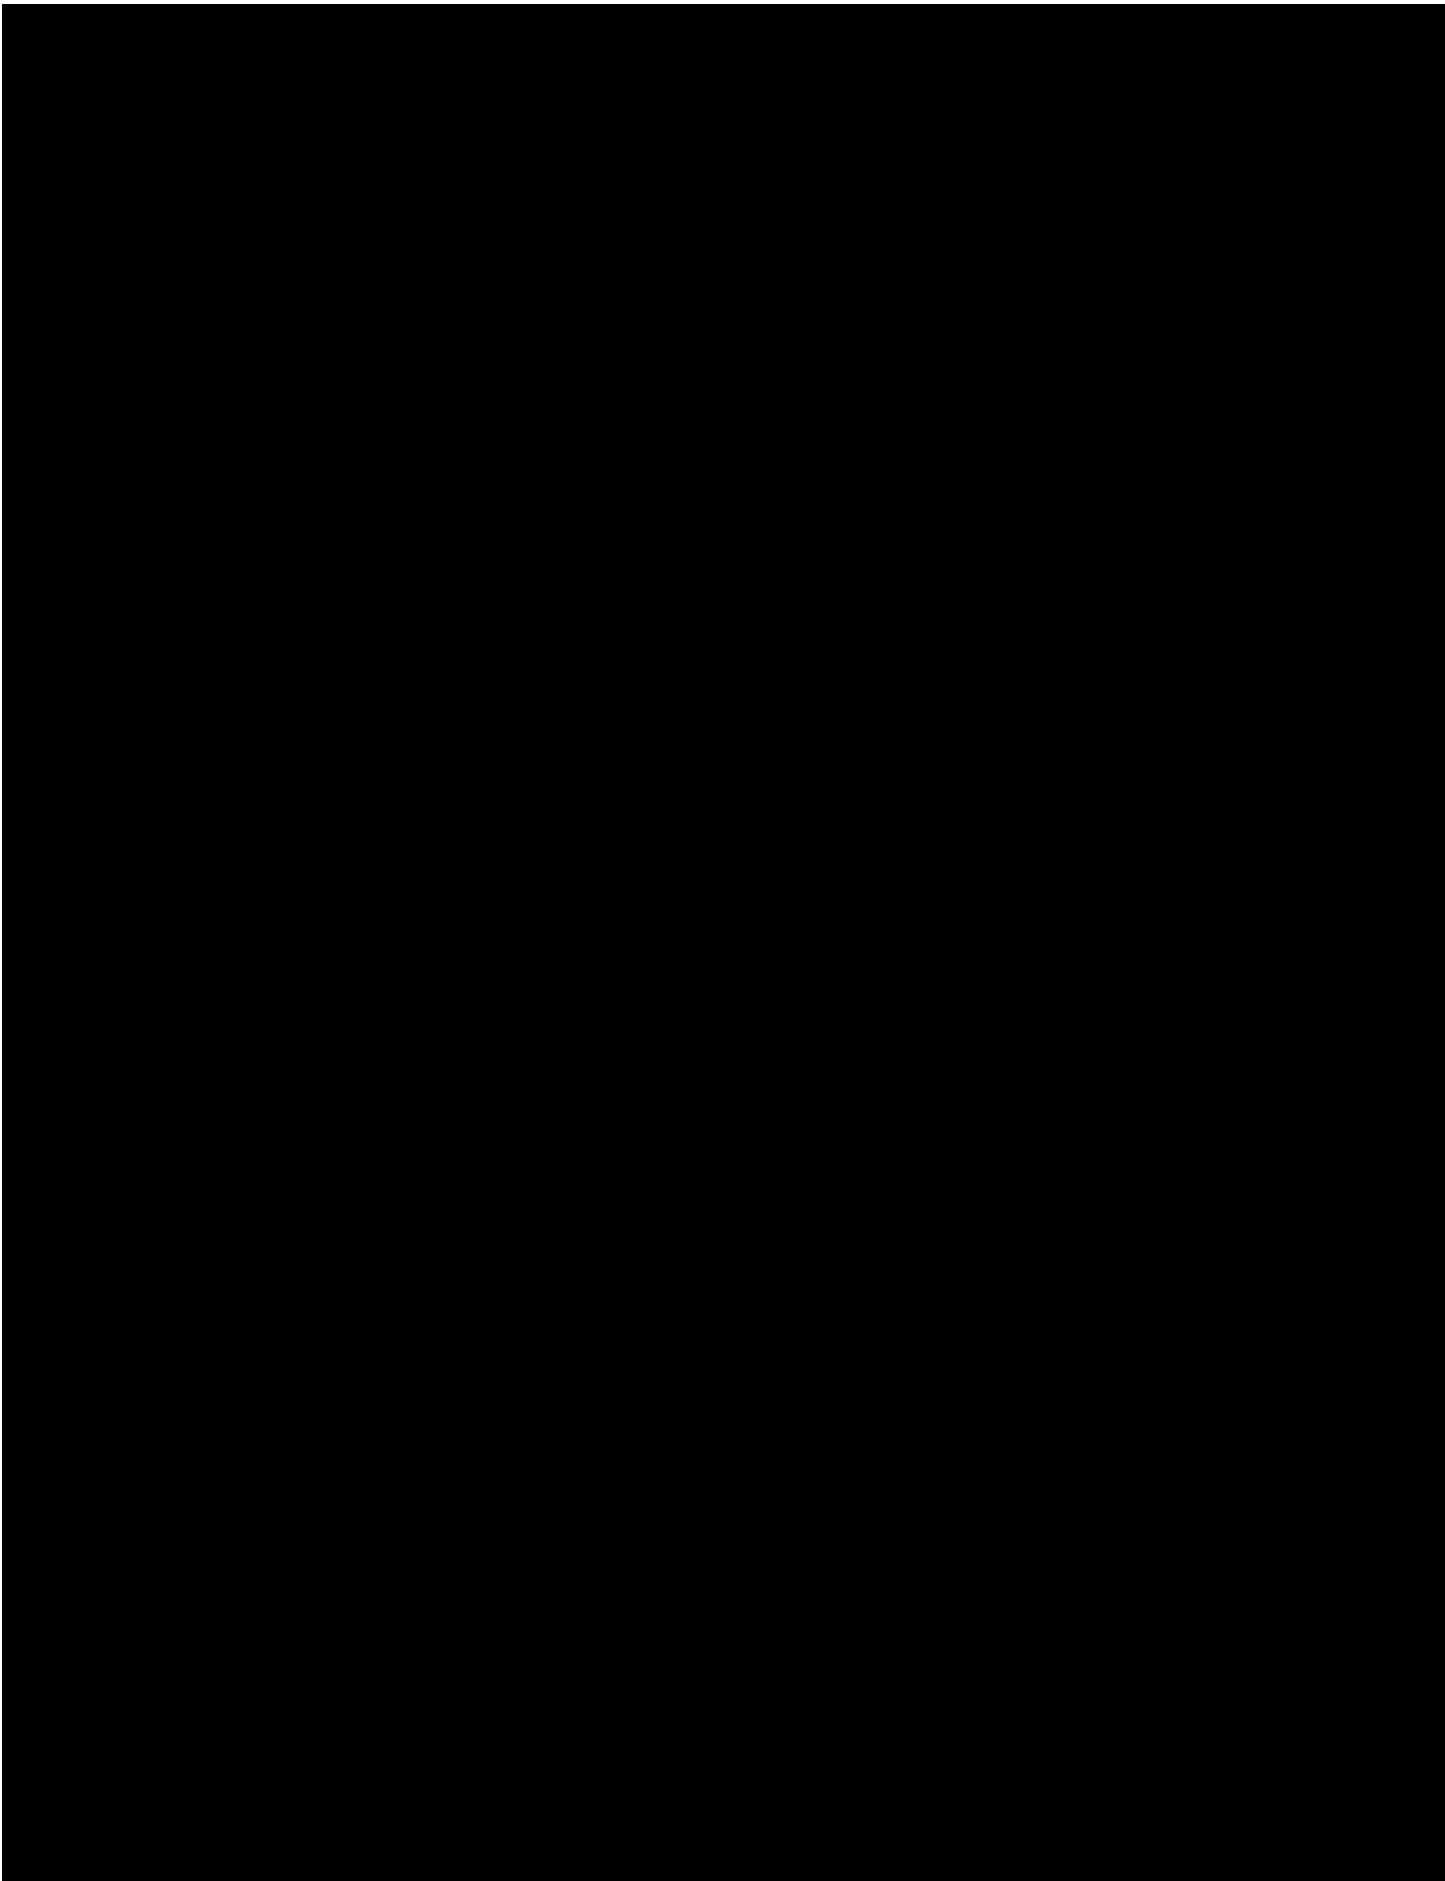

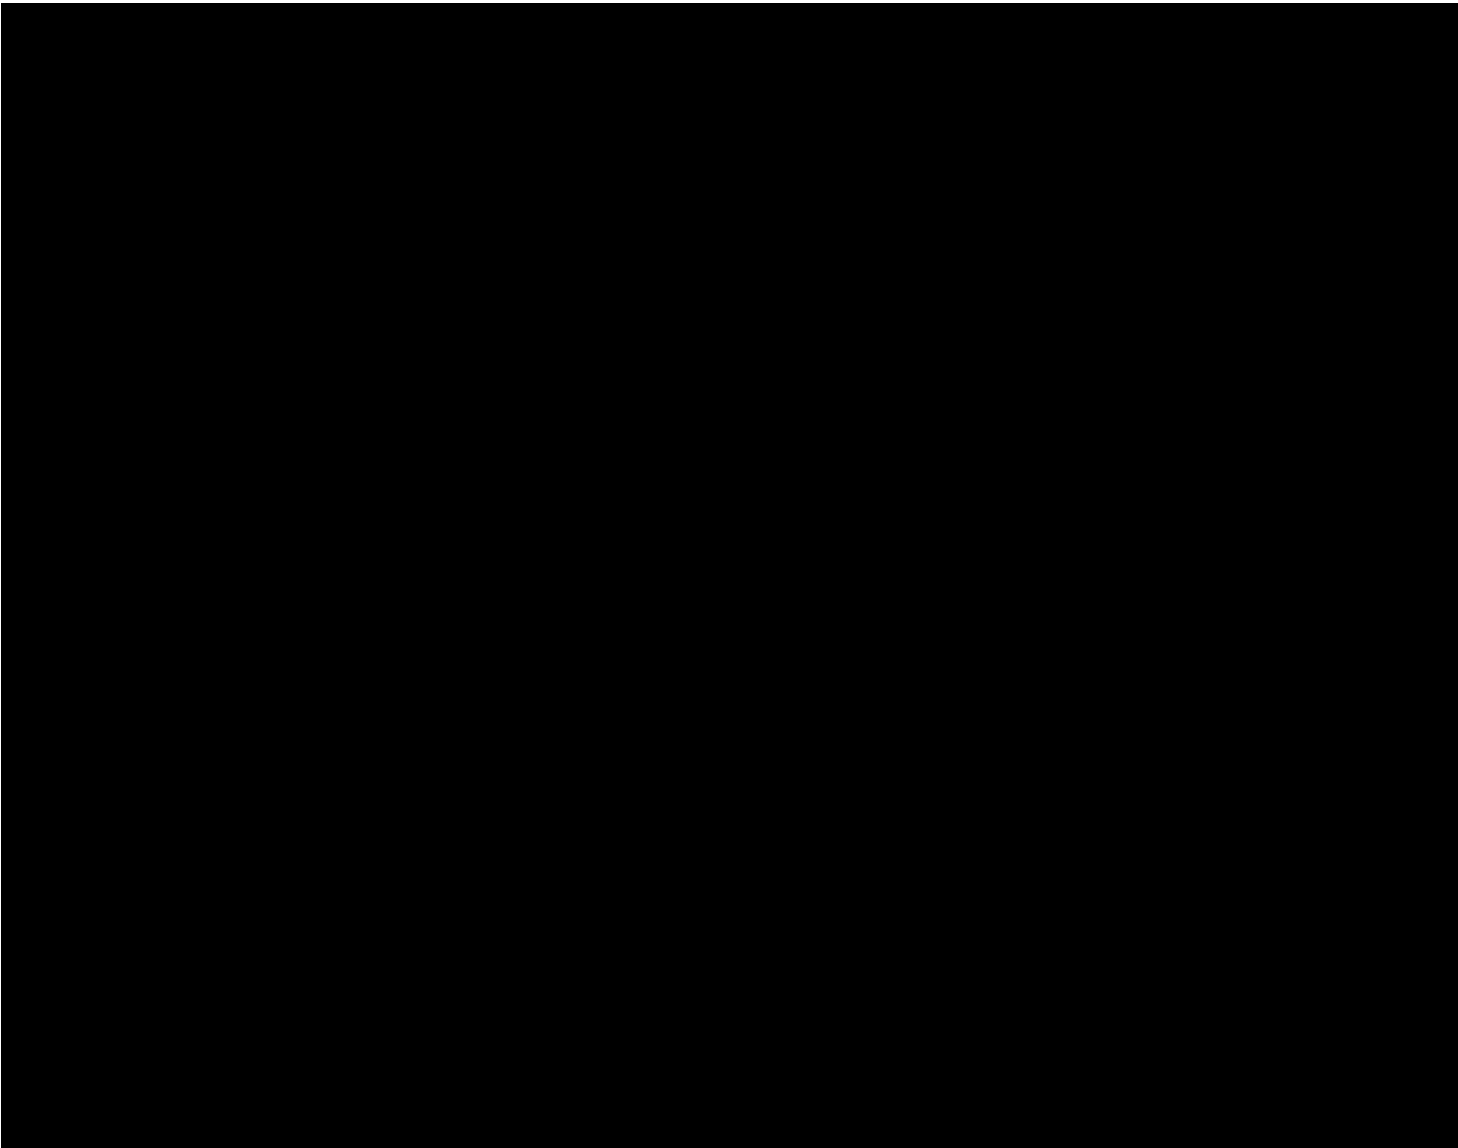

6. Data Sharing and Privacy Considerations

Prepared for: Apex Town Commissioners

Distribution: Town Commissioners, Town Manager Randy Vosburg, Police Chief Ryan Johansen, Town Attorney